

Veronika Chmeliarová

As a graduate of the Conservatory in Žilina, she completed a master's degree at the Academy of Arts in Banská Bystrica, during which she completed a six-month stay in Finland at the University of Oulu. After graduating, she completed a six-year study at the Methodical Center at the Janáček Academy of Arts in Brno. She works as a teacher at the Conservatory in Žilina. She leads methodical days and participates as a member of juries in competitions. She organizes music education projects for preschoolers, is the founder of the Piano

Forum project, an educational events for piano teachers. She co-organizes the 13th International Festival Forum per tasti in Žilina.